Section 3. Remarks

Applicant proposes that all of Examiner's concerns have been addressed in the above response. However, Applicant is certainly willing to conduct an interview with Examiner, if such would be likely to further Applicant's case. Applicant is willing to conduct a telephone interview, or a videoconference interview to discuss the present invention and differences from the prior art. Applicant requests the Examiner contact the below-signed agent by telephone to arrange for an interview, if needed.

Applicant has endeavored to address all points of the Examiner's communication, either by way of amendment, argument, or both. Applicant anticipates a speedy Notice of Allowance in this case, and will be grateful to Examiner therefore.

Respectfully Submitted,
